

ARC Veterinary Centre

The Set where approached by ARC Veterinary Centre, a modern veterinary practice based in South London. The new owners of the practice required a contemporary professional solution to their re-branding. The Set produced a new landmark which was both lighthearted and friendly. The identity has been implemented on all communications from stationary, advertising through to signage.

