

Christophers American Grill

Design and print was commissioned to support two of Christopher's restaurants in different London locations. An over arching brand was employed alongside two very distinctive sub brands. The Set produced all printed materials including menus, posters, postcards invites and brochures as well as stationery.

