

Critical Eye

An international quarterly publication aimed at Directors and CEO's who wish to network and share business ideas. Although CriticalEye has been in existence for sometime a fresh approach was required to keep the publication fresh and energetic, The Set was tasked with a complete redesign of the seventy six page magazine, which also included advertising and art direction.

