

Fairley House School

The Set have been involved with Fairley House School for over five years. Designs produced for the school include advertising, marketing and all internal communications.

The Set was also tasked with producing the School's prospectus, which included all photography and copywriting. A website with school information including all term, diary dates, news and a gallery of pupils work was designed, built and optimised by The Set.

